2nd Chance 4 Pets Selected by Disney Program Volunteers Eligible to Earn Day Passes to Disney Parks

LOS GATOS, Calif. (December 2009)—Volunteers with 2nd Chance 4 Pets will receive an added perk in 2010; the possibility to earn a free day at one of the Disney parks. Disney's new program, "Give a Day, Get a Disney Day", awards volunteers a free one-day admission to a Walt Disney World or Disneyland theme park. 2nd Chance 4 Pets, a nonprofit advocacy organization is run entirely by volunteers located throughout the U.S. The nonprofit lists its volunteer opportunities with HandsOn Network, the organization Disney is partnering with for this program.

Amy Shever, founder of 2nd Chance 4 Pets, says "Our volunteers spend countless hours helping pets and their pet owners. It's wonderful that they'll have the opportunity to be rewarded for their efforts through Disney's program." The Disney program kicks off January 1st, 2010.

About 2nd Chance 4 Pets:

The mission of 2nd Chance for Pets is to reduce the number of pets unnecessarily euthanized each year due to the death or incapacity of the human companions who care for them. 2nd Chance 4 Pets is a nonprofit, 501(c) (3) all-volunteer organization. The organization works nationwide to provide pet owners with comprehensive information and lifetime care solutions for their pets. Please visit www.2ndchance4pets.org for more information.

About HandsOn Network:

The volunteer-focused arm of Points of Light Institute, HandsOn Network is the largest volunteer network in the nation and includes more than 250 HandsOn Action Centers that reach more than 83 percent of the nation's population and extend to 10 countries. HandsOn includes a powerful network of more than 70,000 corporate, faith and nonprofit organizations that are answering the call to serve and creating scaled impact. In 2008, the network delivered approximately 30 million hours of volunteer service.
